For many who have lost a loved one, the holiday season can intensify feelings of sadness and isolation. This one-hour seminar helps people who are grieving discover practical and meaningful ways to cope during the holidays and on other special occasions. It is also helpful for those wishing to support someone through this time.

Please Forward and/or Post This Invitation for Others Who May be Interested

SPEAKER:

Anne Kister has been with Providence Hospice & Palliative Care for a little over three years. During that time she has been part of the Community Care Program, which offers educational presentations on how to support others facing a serious illness or loss. Anne, who has a background in education and speaking, goes out into the community, free of charge, offering this service to a variety of audiences.
