Please join Kelly Paxton as she discusses Elder Financial Fraud and ways to protect yourself and your family from Elder Financial Fraud and Abuse. This includes civil and criminal procedures. From background investigations and due diligence on providers to protecting yourself and your family relations when one has to take over a parent’s finances this programs will provide case scenarios and resources to help navigate through this difficult topic.

SPEAKER: Kelly Paxton CFE, president, Financial CaseWorks LLC

Ms. Paxton has approximately 15 years of law enforcement experience. Prior to entering law enforcement she was employed for 10 years in the financial services industry. Ms. Paxton was recruited by US Customs for her expertise in the financial industry in 1993. While a Special Agent for US Customs Ms. Paxton was assigned to the money laundering, white collar crimes and narcotics unit. She was responsible for the accounting of numerous certified undercover operations. Ms. Paxton has over seven years experience performing background investigations for security clearances at the federal level. As an analyst for the Washington County Sheriff’s Office Ms. Paxton has provided investigative and analytical support for the Fraud Identity Theft Enforcement Team.

Ms. Paxton is a Certified Fraud Investigator and a Licensed Private Investigator.
