TOPIC: Anna will give an overview of the nature and effects of Parkinson's Disease. The presentation will include information about available resources in our area and how to support individuals and families who are struggling with issues related to Parkinson's Disease.

SPEAKER: Anna Sanger Reed is the Education & Outreach Coordinator for Parkinson's Resources. She received her BA in Psychology from the University of Washington and joined Parkinson's Resources shortly thereafter, in February of 2008. Anna has enjoyed a variety of volunteer roles, and has experience as a Volunteer Coordinator for the American Red Cross. Her current responsibilities include overseeing Parkinson's Resources network of support groups, exercise classes, annual conference and monthly education programs and training for long term care professionals.
